This week PGA Tour event is the 2010 US Open at Pebble Beach Golf Links. All eyes will be on Tiger Woods as he tries to regain the form in majors that has allowed him to win 14 major titles. He won the title at Pebble Beach in 2000 by 15 strokes and will be hoping to add to his tally of three US Opens. Phil Mickelson, who has won three tournaments at Pebble Beach will start as the hot favourite and will be looking to add to his US Masters title from 2 months ago. The hottest golfer on the planet, Lee Westwood should also be in the mix come Sunday. The Aussie charge will be headed by Geoff Ogilvy. I like Adam Scott's form of late and would expect him to be the leading Australian. It should be exciting golf to watch at arguably one of the most scenic golf courses in the world.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members of Portland Golf Club for their friendship and support during the first 6 months of our new lives in Portland. Nicole and I are really enjoying ourselves and I look forward to continuing to serve as your Head Professional for a long time to come. We are growing used to the weather (believe it or not, Taree does get colder and wetter) and are enjoying the challenges of the course and new Golf Professional position. We will be taking a break for two weeks from next Friday and will trust that John Baulch, Mark Curran and Virginia Bobbitt will assist you with your golfing needs while we are away. Get ready for a Super Post Stock take sale when we return in Mid July. Everything will be reduced to clear to make way for some new and exciting products arriving later in the year.

I am looking forward to the second half of the year as the golfing calendar gets busier. We have some exciting events coming up so stay tuned for further details. I hope you enjoy the weekly newsletter and if you can suggest any changes or ideas for it, please let me know.

Regards,
Ben
